SULLIVAN WILL RUN CONVENTION

OUT AND OUTER BRYAN LEADERS ADMIT DEFEAT.

Saloon Issue Bothers Leaders of Democracy—Johnson Sentiment Becoming Stronger—Fight on Sullivan Will Be Injurious.

Springfield News: Roger Sullivan and Millard F. Dunlap have arrived. Let the Democratic state convention proceed.

The lion and the lamb have met. They have laid down together, but as in many another instance, the lamb reposeth within the lion.

At noon to day the Dunlap, Thompson, Clendenin leaders of the out and outers of the Bryan democracy admitted they were down and out. Even they can see only a third of the delegates. The other two-thirds belong to the lion.

Harmony for the first time in a great many years is likely to hover over a state Democratic convention. The bird of peace has been lured back. An ax blade imbedded in a log will be prominently displayed in the convention hall as a gentle reminder to the Bryan simon pures to behave.

No power of oratory can change the situation. There is no use to fight; for to fight is to lose, yes, to be eaten up and digested.

The Bryan men are willing to take the best they can get. They want to be able to point to strong endorsement from Illinois for the Nebraska. A fight on Sullivan at this critical time, with him in full control of the situation, would only injure Billy.

Johnson sentiment is strong; in fact too strong to monkey with.

Johnson boomers have laid a trail of powder through the St. Nicholas hotel and the state armory. The Bryan men are trying to follow its devious paths with a sprinkling of water to wet it down.

The Johnson sentiment bothers only the Bryan men.

The entire party and the Sullivan end of it, which appears to be about all of it except possibly the tip of the tail has something more serious to think about.

The saloon question has in a night arisen like a chimera. The Personal Liberty league of Chicago has come armed with most radical demands for repeal of Sunday closing acts, the substitution of home rule on the question of open saloons and the repeal of the local option law so far as the township feature is concerned. And there is a mighty fine large sentiment for the entire program of the Liberty league.

Less Radical Planks. Less radical planks on the subjects have been proposed and the leaders of the Democracy in view of the late elections are not contemplating the array with equanimity.

Democracy is for home rule, but it is doubtful whether it will care to go to the extent that the liberty league demands. If the plank of the Republican platform on this subject is made a little stronger the party leaders believe they will be doing about enough and the league ought to be satisfied with it.

Springfield, April 22.—The Democratic state convention to tomorrow will endorse William J. Bryan in the strongest terms and will instruct its delegates for him. Johnson of Minnesota, will be accorded flattering applause whenever his name is mentioned, but nothing more substantial will be offered him at this time. There is a strong undercurrent of individual feeling in favor of the Minnesota man, but it is not sufficiently crystallized to allow of specific action being taken upon it. Everything will go for Bryan and it will go with a rush. Roger C. Sullivan of Chicago, the national committeeman from this state, who practically controls the situation, said to night that "the convention is all for Bryan. Nobody is going to dictate the Bryan resolutions and the convention itself. They can make it as strong as they like and it will go through."

While nothing but harmony is in sight on the question of presidential endorsement and instructions, there will be a hot fight in the committee on resolutions over the wording of the "personal liberty" plank. The delegates favor leaving the liquor question out of the platform entirely, while others consider it best to adopt no platform whatever. A declaration will, however, be made on the subject.

Resolutions will be adopted condemning the Republican state administration in unflattering terms for its alleged mismanagement of public institutions. The deep waterways project will be endorsed, and in other respects the platform will closely follow the lines of the one adopted four years ago. Fred P. Morris of Watseka, Ill., will be both temporary and permanent chairman. It was decided to night that six and possibly eight delegates at large will be sent to Denver instead of the usual four. The men slated are Roger C. Sullivan, Sammie A. Schuler, Edward P. Dunne, Fred Kern, Adlai E. Stevenson, C. F. Begg. If eight men go the other two will be selected to morrow.

Fight Begun. The state central committee met to night at 10 o'clock and it immediately developed that the harmony program was not nailed down as tightly as was supposed. The first thing to come before the committee was the proposition by representatives of Bryan clubs of Chicago and the Cook County Democracy, to adjourn until some time next month with the alternative of a contesting state delegation at Denver if adjournment was refused. They claimed a legal convention can not be held before May 1, and argued that if the convention was held prior to May 1, Republican congress would have power to throw out the electoral vote of Illinois if it should be carried by the Democrats. In order to avoid such a possibility they asked that the present convention be adjourned. The state committee rejected the proposition.

TRIED TO KIDNAP DAUGHTER. East St. Louis, Ill., April 22.—After attempting to kidnap his 7 year old daughter, Pearl, from her class room at Venice, Ill., C. W. Evans, a wealthy stockman of Tulsa, Okla., fought a desperate battle with Miss Adeline Barnett, the teacher, and was finally captured after a chase in carriages across St. Clair county. Evans and his present wife, who was with him, are in the Venice jail under bond. The child is a daughter by a former marriage. Her mother is divorced from Evans and lives in Venice.

BANNERMAN DEAD

Former Premier and Noted British Liberal Leader Succumbs to Heart Disease.

London, April 22.—Former Premier Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman died at 9:15 a. m. to day. He had been ill for many weeks and resigned his office less than a month ago, owing to the growing seriousness of his condition. He succumbed to heart disease.

Sir Henry Campbell Bannerman was the first liberal prime minister in England since Lord Roseberry's surrender of the government reins in 1895.

He assumed office of his party were threatening political separation, brought them together by his skill as a conciliator, and held them firmly up to the moment of his retirement.

The opinion among British politicians is that the truce cannot long continue without him. If the present premier Herbert Asquith, remains many months in power, England will be surprised.

The division in the party has been likened to that among the Democrats in the United States, following the nomination of William J. Bryan.

Asquith, Sir Henry's successor, is compared to Cleveland. He is quite unable to understand the radical element's ideas and, being a man of aggressive personality rather than a conciliator of his predecessor's type, makes no attempt even to conceal his preference for a party break rather than surrender on any point of divergence. The Bryan of the liberal organization has not yet been developed.

Sir Henry Campbell Bannerman was born Sept. 7, 1836, in Forfarshire, Scotland, the son of Sir James Campbell, of Stracathro.

He assumed the additional name of Bannerman under the will of an uncle who was educated at Glasgow university and Trinity college Cambridge and entered early upon political life.

BOAT RACE

Harvard Oarsmen Defeat Naval Academy by Half Length of Their Shell.

Annapolis, Md., April 22.—By not a full half length of their shell to day the naval academy crew lost to Harvard's eight oared crew, one of the strongest and most spectacular races ever rowed over the two mile course of the Evers river. The time was: Harvard, 10:30; navy, 10:32. The navy crew caught the Harvard at the rate of 42 strokes a minute, while their opponent's rate was 40. The difference told and the midshipmen jumped to the front. Their lead was about a quarter of a length and they held it advantage until the half mile signal was reached, when their stroke came down to 36. Harvard held her pace of 40. At the mile post the river crews were neck and neck for a quarter of a mile, when the shell of the visitor crept ahead, while the navy lost ground.

BOARD OF MISSIONS.

Springfield, April 22.—With over 300 delegates representing Colorado, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Minnesota, Montana, Michigan, Utah, the Dakotas, Nebraska and Wisconsin, the thirty-seventh annual meeting of the Woman's Presbyterian Board of Missions of the Northwest convened. The principal work of the session was the report of the nominating committee by Mrs. George Robinson, who presented the names of the official state, which were accepted by the general assembly. These included: President emeritus, Mrs. H. H. Forsythe, Chicago; Secretary, Mrs. Albert L. Berry, Chicago; recording secretary, Mrs. A. W. McClure, Chicago.

NOTABLE JOINT BANQUET HELD

PUBLISHERS AND EDITORS PARTICIPATE IN GATHERING.

Every State and Territory in United States Represented—W. J. Bryan, Senator Knox and Other Men of Public Influence Guests of Honor.

New York, April 22.—There was a notable gathering of editors and publishers at the Waldorf-Astoria to day, the occasion being the joint banquet of the Associated Press and the American Newspaper Publishers' association, both of which are holding annual meetings in this city. Every state and territory in the United States is represented in the news paper profession, and their guests, included William J. Bryan, United States Senator Philander C. Knox of Pennsylvania, and other men of public influence.

The grand ball room was filled to the limit of comfort, when the 600 dinner and their places were taken, which were half hidden by a wealth of carnations and apple blossoms, were occupied by families and friends of the banqueters.

Toastmaster Ridder began the evening's formalities by proposing the health of the president of the United States. The toast was drunk standing, while the crowd placed the Star Spangled Banner.

After a few words of welcome Ridder introduced General Taylor of Boston, who made a brief address, saying in part: "Journalists are criticized fairly and unfairly and we are criticized as other people are because we are human. I want to say this of my brethren of the press that they have just as high ideal of this, they are just as anxious to promote the greatest good for the greatest number, they are just as eager to build up the best institutions of their race as we are. They are just as anxious to carry as much sunshine and as little trouble as they can to homes of the American people, as the men of any other profession or any other business in the United States."

Rabbi Wise discussed the influence of the press, saying he would venture to say that the press with the greatest power, the man who perhaps does more to shape things in the United States than any other is the manager of the Associated Press. Wise adjured his hearers to free themselves "from the enslavement and tyrannies of power of partisanship, of sectionalism and prejudices."

By a large majority the bill to allow the importation of foreign white laborers into Hawaii was defeated.

Venezuelan Question. Administration officials have practically abandoned expectations that the senate will at this session of congress approve the proposed punitive measures against Venezuela for her refusal to refer to arbitration of disputed claims of American citizens and corporations against the country.

All the papers in the case are before the senate committee on foreign relations and ample time has been given for a reasonably thorough consideration of the matter.

Public opinion as to the merits of the controversy or propriety of the United States taking summary action has not developed to any great extent. Officials say, as the result of publication of this correspondence and for this reason the senate committee probably does not feel justified in acting.

Commercial interests in Venezuela which would be adversely affected by punitive measures have urged nothing be done, while no sentiment has developed in favor of drastic action.

BROWNSVILLE AND NAVAL BILL

SUBJECTS CONSIDERED BY THE SENATE YESTERDAY.

Under Suspension of Rules House Passed Three Bills and Defeated One—Other News From the National Capital.

Washington, April 22.—The Brownsville affair and naval appropriation bill occupied practically the entire time of the senate to day and both subjects will again be under consideration to morrow. Warner of Missouri, continued his remarks on the discharge of the soldiers and quoted at considerable length from testimony taken in that case. He did not conclude his remarks and will resume to morrow.

The naval bill was read through with the exception of sections relating to battleships, which will probably lead to an interesting discussion to morrow.

Hale announced that he would propose an amendment appropriating $7,000,000 to begin construction on new battleships, so that there might be no delay in that work, and there is no doubt the amount will be added.

Warren, reverting to a recent speech by Hale against military enlargement, read statements from the secretary of war and chief of staff, disclaiming any purpose of securing a regular army of 125,000 men.

The sum total of to day's house proceedings was the passage and suspension of rules of three bills and defeat of one.

When adjournment was reached there was pending a measure which instructs the attorney general to institute suits against the Oregon & California railroad for forfeiture of several million acres of land grants in Oregon and California.

Declaring the right to enter as oil lands certain mineral lands; authorizing alienation of certain allotments of five acres and the removing of restrictions against foreign ships with respect to trade between the United States and the Philippines.

By a large majority the bill to allow the importation of foreign white laborers into Hawaii was defeated.

TOTALLY DRY COUNTY.

Pulaski Added to List as Result of Tuesday's Election.

Chicago, April 22.—Pulaski county was added to the "totally dry" column by late returns from yesterday's local option election. The county received to day. In addition two more counties were found to have voted out saloons in all but one village or town within their limits. The "totally dry" counties of the state now number thirty-six.

KNOX TALKS OF RAILROADS. New York, April 22.—Senator Knox addressed the Civic Forum to night on "The People, Railroads and National Authority." Knox traced the history of great interstate railroad and showed they had been the wards and beneficiaries of the federal government; that from the beginning state control over them has progressively lessened and that national control progressively increased to the point where the last bridge of local authority, except in matters comparatively unimportant and local in their bearings has been swept away and the national power declared paramount.

FUND STARTED. Chicago, April 22.—A fund of $1,000,000 for the furtherance of home missions and church extensions among the Roman Catholics of the United States was started to day at the annual meeting here of the board of governors of the Catholic Union society. The first subscription to the fund was a pledge of $100,000 by Ambrose Petrie of New York. In addition the society decided to work for the establishment of a seminary for the education of prospective clergymen at Manila, P. I.

MAKES BALLOON TRIP. Washington, April 22.—Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., the president's son, had his first experience as an aeronaut to day, ascending from the navy yard in this city at 1:40 this afternoon and landing four miles from Delaware City, Del., at 5:30, having traveled 135 miles in three hours and forty minutes. Accompanied by his fellow sky travelers, Captain Chandler, pilot, and Capt. Fitzhugh Lee, the president's aid, young Roosevelt returned to Washington shortly after midnight.

DEATHS. Springfield, April 22.—George N. Black, aged 75, banker and manufacturer, is dead. At the time of his death he was president of the State Historical society and director of the State Historical library. He was assisted in organizing in 1899. He was one of the builders of several railroads now forming part of the trunk lines of this state.

ADDRESS BY CORTELYOU. Auburn, N. Y., April 22.—The principal address at the annual banquet of the Auburn Business Men's association to night was Secretary of the Treasury Cortelyou. The subject of his address was "Some Aspects of Public Service." He was given a flattering reception by 275 members of the association and their guests.

FATHER AND SON BURNED. Osmond, Neb., April 22.—J. K. York and his son Earl were burned to death near here last night. They took refuge in a hay stack during a lightning storm. The lightning rendered them unconscious, started fire, which partly consumed their bodies.

ADOPT RESOLUTIONS. During to day's session of the American Newspaper Publishers' association a resolution was adopted which expresses the publishers' favor of free pulp and print paper.

Another resolution was adopted which protests against the subscription of the Associated Press to the proposed bill for the "free pulp." They charge that "this device was inspired in bad faith" and allege that Cannon, Payne and Dazell have repudiated all efforts of the association's committee to that effecting reception by 275 members of the association and their guests.

ATTACKED BY TRAMPS. Mt. Vernon, Ill., April 22.—Two men were found dying on a Louisville & Nashville freight train to day. The local eastbound freight was making up on the switch nearby and just as Woodson drove on the track it bumped into some cars near the crossing causing them to run back west. These cars struck the wagon about the center tearing it to pieces. Woodson jumped off the wagon and kept the horses from being struck.

KILLED DURING QUARREL. Rhineclander, Wis., April 22.—Walter Apple was to day killed with an ax by Fred Nephler after a quarrel.

THREATENS TO VETO NAVAL BILL

MUST MAKE APPROPRIATION FOR TWO BATTLESHIPS.

Vigorous Action Taken by President When He Learned Bill Passed by House Was Simply "Paper" Provision for Increase.

Washington, April 22.—President Roosevelt will veto the naval appropriation bill should the senate, as did the house, fail to make any appropriation for two battleships, which were authorized in the measure. Prompt announcement of this fact to senate leaders to day is regarded as responsible for the announcement by Hale that he should propose an amendment appropriating $7,000,000 toward construction of these ships.

The president stated his position on this point with the usual emphasis and suddenness to day upon learning the bill, as passed by the house, was simply a "paper" provision for naval increase. Authorization of the ships was made, but no money carried to make the provision effective. Such legislation as that, the president made known to his numerous congressional callers, was a travesty as to effectiveness, as well as bearing on the earmarks of legislative legislation, intended to make ridiculous his campaign for a greater navy.

The president's quick and vigorous action is to be effective is evidenced by the action of Chairman Hale of the senate committee in announcing that in the proper time he will propose a $7,000,000 amendment.

As to his threat of veto, the president made it plain that should the wisdom of congress result in the passage of the bill providing for no naval increase whatever, he would have to veto the measure. Any attempt at such a program for four ships, legislation authorizing and not appropriating ships he declared he will defeat by the exercise of his constitutional power of veto. There is not the slightest indication the president has ceased his fight for four new ships, according to evidence of senators who talked with him to day.

Sixty-nine is attached to this point of the senate in that it is said to show a loss to the president of some of his heretofore staunch supporters.

Operators Refuse to Pay Shot Fliers and Miners Threaten to Strike.

Springfield, Ill., April 22.—Both miners and operators of the state stand facing a forbidding prospect relative to the probable outcome of the present district convention concerning the future agreement. When the dist convention was dismissed this afternoon until tomorrow morning, the miners stood strong for conclusion of negotiations and a general strike, while operators flatly refused to pay shot-fliers, but contended they did not wish a strike or suspension of work. Operations state they will not agree to pay shot fliers in whole or in part.

Miners expressed themselves as equally firm in their intentions. Several speeches were made by delegates, in which it was stated that unless operators should agree to take over shot-fliers, 60,000 miners of the state would strike. At the conclusion of the session of the dist convention executive sessions.

Chicago, April 22.—The champions won their first home game in an easy fashion. Coakley was wild and hit freely in the five innings he pitched. Sheekard had the honor of making the first double, Steinfeldt the first triple and Robert the first homer, the latter being a mighty drive to the seats in center. The new grandstand extensions were packed with an enthusiastic crowd to witness the raising of the national league pennant. This ceremony, scheduled to be performed by contending teams and a brass band, succeeded only after the 25-cent bleachers had come to the rescue.

RESERVOIR FULL OF WATER

JACKSONVILLE WATER COMPANY ENDS TEST.

2,000,000 Gallons Pumped in Twenty Hours—Water Pumped Into Streets From City Mains in Order to Finish Test—Pitometers Will Be Read To Day.

The Jacksonville Water company began its test at 6:58 p. m. on April 21, and the reservoir (which holds 2,600,000 gallons) was filled at 3:16 p. m. on April 22, or in 20 hours and 18 minutes. This is an hour less than the time which should be allowed to fill the reservoir at the rate of 3,000,000 gallons per day. To pump that amount requires an average of 125,000 gallons per hour. At no time was the delivery less than that amount, and in one hour 150,000 gallons were delivered. Thus in 20 hours and 18 minutes enough water was put into the reservoir to supply the city for about three days.

During the previous test the dam and heavy weather interfered with the generation of steam, but during the present test there was no trouble of that kind, and the steam pressure was uniform and adequate. Immediately after the reservoir was filled, the valves leading to and from it were closed, that connecting with the city mains was opened and the water was pumped directly into the mains and the standpipe. This was done in order to continue the test for the full period of 24 hours, and allow the pitometers to register for that period. In order to allow the surplus water to escape, eight hydrants were opened and the water was allowed to flow into the streets. But with these hydrants flowing, the city was still supplied with water and a head of about fifteen feet was maintained. In the standpipe above the level of the water in the reservoir. About 7 p. m. the hydrants were closed and the standpipe was about half full.

Both pumps were used at from one-half to two-thirds speed, in order to secure interchangeability and flexibility, so that, if necessary, either could be shut down and the other continued at full capacity.

Since the former test two additional wells have been driven and they are entirely satisfactory, placing the water supply beyond question, but they have not yet been permanently connected as a part of the system and yesterday a temporary expedient was used to put them in service. Later they will be permanently connected.

There are now twelve wells ten inches in diameter. There is no doubt as to the quality and abundance of the water supply, nor the capacity of the company to deliver it.

As stated above, hydrants were opened yesterday to waste the excess of water pumped over that consumed by the city, and it is the only way of disposing of the waste. This will work some hardship on the consumer since the pressure is taken off the mains by the hydrants.

During the test three pitometers were in service—two at the pumping station and one near the reservoir. These instruments were leased from the Pitometer company, and were accompanied by a representative of that company. As the test closed at dark, there had not been time to check the pitometer record with the measurements of the reservoir before this report was written. But the pumps were continued at substantially the same rate after the reservoir was filled as before and there can be no doubt that the amount of water delivered in Jacksonville in twenty-four hours was at least 3,100,000 gallons.

As to the ability of the company to furnish an abundant supply of pure wholesome water there can be no doubt whatever. The test which commenced January 4 and ended February 5, last, absolutely demonstrated that fact. During all the period mentioned the city was not called upon to supply a single gallon of water for any purpose, and yet the supply was ample for all purposes and satisfactory to the people. The two wells lately finished only add to the certainty in that regard.

MACMILLAN CONCERT.

The announcement that Mr. Francis Macmillan is to play here May 5 has been received with great enthusiasm by lovers of music in this city. Macmillan is perhaps known as well as any of the great living violinists, and that he is a player of exceptional merit is evidenced by the great enthusiasm he has created throughout the country during his tours this and last season. He is now nearing the end of one of the most remarkable tours of the history of music in America. His complete tour of 1907-08 will include 161 concerts.

RUMOR OF CHANGE IN ALTON TIME CARD

Jacksonville May Lose Kansas City Train—City Council Should Act Wisely in Dealing With the Alton—Other Railroad News.

According to rumors in the Springfield and Bloomington papers the Alton is contemplating taking off other trains which are now passing through this place, Nos. 23 and 24, through from Chicago to Kansas City, going through Jacksonville, south, at 9:10 in the evening and north at 6:25 in the morning. If this be correct it is a matter much to be deplored. As it is the Alton is one of the best roads for Jacksonville, having a time card, both north and south, that gives people a good time to trade in the city and while the change will not affect these it will materially affect the convenience of persons who wish to travel through north and south. The taking off of the Hummer was a blow to the city which has been much felt, and this will be another, and it would be a good thing if the Business Men's association could bring a pressure to bear that would retain the trains as they are at present. Jacksonville has no facilities to spare and the cutting off of these trains will be a serious loss to the city. On the other hand denunciation of the road is not in order. According to the official reports it has been a heavy loser through the new two-cent law and roads cannot be run on sentiment, nor for convenience when the service doesn't pay. Probably the management sees more trade in routing the trains the other way or it would not be done. The men at the head of the corporation are there to make money for the owners and not to favor or spite any community. It should also be borne in mind that the road has some grievances against the city. When the management was ready to construct a new freight depot the unwise conduct of the city council, to put it mildly, prevented the improvement. Again the same matter is up and in addition the erection of a new passenger station and again obstacles and conditions are being interposed which will do the city only harm and no good. Railroad officials are only human and when they see the members of a city council determined to make unreasonable demands and impose unjust conditions it is not strange that they should act just as other men would in private business. It would seem as if Jacksonville had had enough lessons on such a subject to cause her officials to show a little wisdom, but they seem slow to read the history of the past. If we want the trains mentioned retained or restored let our council act a little more reasonably and do something showing some favor to the road and not hamper it with unwise conditions and demands when it wants a site for a freight depot and passenger station.

Getting Rid of Foreigners.

The Wabash Railroad company is getting rid of its foreign employees and their places are being given to Americans. This is true of railroads all over the country, many of the roads, issuing orders that all foreigners or non-voters be discharged and their places given to citizens.

For the last two or three years, the railroads have been doing much construction work and American labor could not be secured, consequently foreigners, Greeks especially, were put on construction gangs. Now that work is so hard to secure, the American who would not work on the section a year ago is glad to get anything to do.

C. & A. Excursions.

Next Sunday the Alton will commence Sunday excursions and will offer a $1.50 rate to St. Louis and return and a $1.25 rate to Peoria and return. At the time the two-cent law went into effect all the railroads agreed to discontinue making excursion rate, but since a number of the roads have found that they have been losing money by this act. The first to notice this was the C. & P. & St. L., which first withdrew from the agreement and announced its intention of beginning excursions. This caused some little trouble in the passenger association at Chicago and the road finally decided not to run excursions. However, the road has again decided to put on excursion rate and last week announced the first excursion next Sunday. Now comes the Alton announcing its intention of running excursions every Sunday and before long probably every road in the state will be doing the same thing.

W. L. Simpson, local freight agent of the Wabash, is confined to his bed at his home on North Church street.

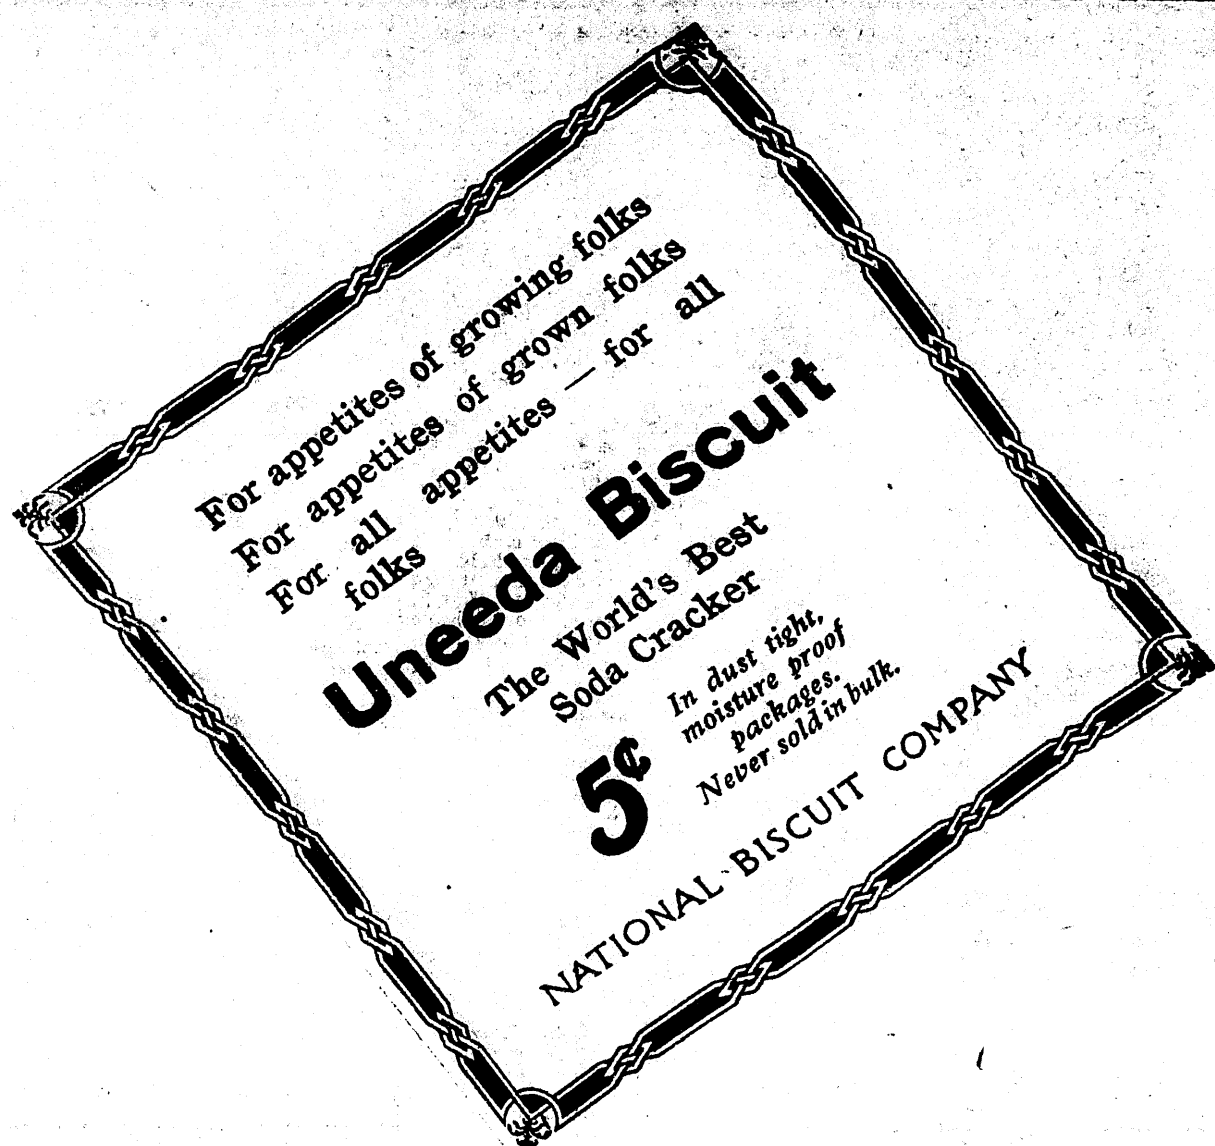

C. S. Delo of Bloomington, engineer of maintenance of way for the Alton was in the city on business yesterday.

John E. Fish, of Springfield, traveling freight agent for the Alton, was in the city on business yesterday.

Daniel Willard, of Chicago, vice president of the Burlington, passed through the city yesterday enroute to St. Louis.

G. W. BROWN BREAKS WORLD'S RECORD.

Lands a Thirty-five Pound Pompano at Miami, Fla.—Fish Was an Hour Giving up the Struggle.

Miami Times: G. W. Brown, of Jacksonville, Ill., who has been spending the winter in Miami at the Green Tree Inn, succeeded in breaking a fishing record all to smash yesterday by landing a pompano which weighed thirty-five pounds. This is the largest pompano ever reported in the state of Florida, and is probably a world's record besides.

During the winter of 1897 two fishermen caught one in a net weighing 37 pounds. This fish was afterwards frozen in a block of ice and placed on exhibition in the Royal Poinciana hotel. But Mr. Brown caught his fish in true sportsmanlike manner and his victory is worthy of more than passing notice, as the tackle he used was very light.

The big fish was hooked in Bears Cut and before Mr. Brown caught a glimpse of him he thought it was an amberjack. To save the fish Mr. Brown was forced to go at his task in a most patient manner, and it was nearly an hour after the fish took the bait before he gave up the struggle.

Mr. Brown is very proud of his catch and justly so as no prettier fish has ever been brought in here. The pompano was exhibited at the Green Tree Inn last evening and was an object of great interest to the guests of that hotel and the passerby.

Owing to the head of the fish being nearly severed from his body it will be impossible to have him mounted, otherwise it would have made a fine ornament for Mr. Brown's Illinois home.

NEW PRESIDENT TO BE NAMED

HEAD OF WOMAN'S COLLEGE OF BALTIMORE HAS RESIGNED.

Dr. J. R. Harker is One of Those Talked of to Succeed Him—Matter Will Be Discussed at General M. E. Conference Which Convenes Next Week.

Dr. Joseph R. Harker president of Illinois Woman's college will leave early in the coming week for Baltimore, where he will attend the sessions of the general conference of the Methodist church as one of the eight lay representatives of the Illinois conference. The general conference will last about four weeks.

This is the second time Dr. Harker has been honored by selection as one of the lay delegates from this conference and the record is unusual. It is a fact worthy of note, too, that the Methodist churches of Jacksonville have been singularly honored in the matter of delegates to the conference. Out of ten conferences to which lay delegates have been admitted Jacksonville has been represented six or seven times. The late Dr. P. G. Gillett was several times a delegate. Ex-Gov. Yates, Judge Whitlock and Dr. Harker are others who have been honored.

One of the important matters which will likely be talked of at the conference will be the choosing of a successor for Dr. Goucher, president of the Woman's college, of Baltimore, who recently resigned. The conference, of course, has no jurisdiction in the matter, but it is sure to be discussed from fact that the position to be filled is an important one and because the conference happens to meet in Baltimore where this institution is located. Dr. Harker has been mentioned among others for the position and a number of influential men are urging his appointment.

The Woman's college of Baltimore is the largest Methodist school for women in the United States and has besides a magnificent equipment, an endowment of more than $1,000,000. There are now between four and five hundred students enrolled and those who are familiar with the institution and its field believe there are great possibilities for its growth and development. A number of prominent educators have been mentioned and are being considered for the position to be vacant soon and should the choice fall on Dr. Harker the honor will certainly be a splendid one and the temptation to accept it will be great.

Dr. Harker has long been identified with the educational interests of this country and city. He first attracted attention in the schools of Meredosia and Waverly, where he organized the course of study and sent out the first graduates from the high schools of those towns. Later he became principal of Whipple academy and all Jacksonville is familiar with the success of his work there, a success which resulted in his choice as the president of Illinois Woman's college. Dr. Harker's magnificent record in building up the Woman's college has attracted the notice of the education world and the notice of the leaders of the great Methodist church. With vigor and courage almost unparalleled he has in fifteen years time done for the Woman's college what many deemed impossible and what few dared even to hope for. When he took the presidency of the college there were but 36 boarding students with perhaps 45 day pupils. An earnest campaign for students was inaugurated and it was a campaign which only required a year or two since for the reason that it had become a question of room and not of attendance. The same vigor which marked President Harker's search for students characterized his efforts in bettering the equipment of the college in raising the standard of the musical and literary departments. By eternal vigilance friends were found from time to time who made it possible for three substantial additions to be made to the building and for $50,000 to be added to the endowment. Other thousands have been spent in internal improvements and to day the Woman's college has an enrollment of 392 and a plant worth $250,000, against an enrollment of 75 and a plant valued at $50,000 when President Harker assumed control.

Dr. Harker has not been offered the presidency of the Woman's college of Baltimore, but is simply being talked of for the position and his appointment is being urged from some quarters. The honor of being offered such a post would certainly be appreciated by any man, for the Baltimore institution has splendid equipment, a large endowment and in work done ranks with Wellesley, Bryn Mawr and other well known schools. The field, too, is great for the college has far from realized its possibilities. However, it is safe to say that no matter how great the temptation Dr. Harker would never leave the Woman's college for other work if he could feel certain that friends of the college can be found who will make it possible for the college to fill the place that should. Dr. Harker has dreamed great things for the Woman's college; his dreams are of the kind that could take substantial form if the needed financial aid were at hand. Two more buildings are needed to day and with the necessary money at Dr. Harker's disposal there is no reason why in ten years time the enrollment of the college could not exceed a thousand. There is nothing unduly visionary about the president's plans and the Woman's college could in a few years time be made the greatest of its kind in the United States if it had the money necessary. Dr. Harker has often spoken of the field the college has to work in, but it is hard to make people realize that the Woman's college is the only one of its kind in the United States and the Pacific coast. After careful study of the subject through several years Dr. Harker is convinced that his plans are practicable and that a great future lies before the Woman's college if men and women with money can only be made to see the matter in its true light.

ARBOR DAY—FRIDAY.

Tomorrow has been set aside as Arbor Day and all over the country, as each year passes, the day has grown in significance. The observation of Arbor Day is looked upon by many as not of much consequence, but by those who know of its value it holds out many opportunities.

In all the public schools, pupils are instructed concerning the day and planting of trees by the students, thus transforming, perhaps a barren school yard with beautiful trees is a matter of no small interest. Nebraska was the first to respond to a call for Arbor Day and planted 1,000,000 trees. That state now has tens of millions of trees scattered over its heretofore barren prairies. The planting of trees by each class on college hill, was a good movement by the pupils and instructors and is sure to result in beautifying the campus. Arbor day is not simply confined to schools, but is an appeal to every one to plant some sort of a tree shrub or vine, thereby making more attractive the home, the city and the community at large.

ROCK ISLAND

LOST FIRST GAME

LUNATICS WON BY SCORE OF 7 TO 5.

Patrick Was Invincible and Pitched Great Ball, Backed up by Excellent Support—Second Game To Day—Career of Manager Cook of Islanders—Other Ball News.

It was a great game the fans witnessed at West Side park Wednesday afternoon, and when the smoke of battle had cleared away, Rock Island, the pennant winner for the Three-league last season, had gone down in defeat and with the record of 7 to 5 crowning the heads of the Lunatics above them all stood the invincible Patrick.

Winning the game was no child's play. Rock Island entered the diamond with a band of warriors that looked every one a man and so they proved. They showed good drill and played fast ball and each one evidenced good form. Everything seemed to be going their way from the beginning. When two runs were made off of Keller in the first inning, Manager Cook dreamed of a big score to send home to Rock Island of the game. But the two runs proved to be easy ones that slipped by Keller, for after the second inning was started and Howard let three men fall through the lines, the faces of the Islanders became more serious and from that point began to work as never before and when the curtain was rung down at the end of the sixth inning with three more to the good for the Lunatics and one for the visitors the fans could scarcely contain themselves and when the invincible Patrick walked out to the pitcher's box at the beginning of the seventh and two men disappeared like dew before a rising sun, and with bases full rung down the curtain to a zero, on a third victim, the visitors then realized that hope had taken wing. From this point both teams redoubled their energies, but Patrick stood like an iron wall and although Wilson twirled for the Islanders the game was lost and the scene closed with a score of 7 to 5.

It should be borne in mind that Rock Island won the pennant last year and are looked upon as more than likely to bring home the flag again. To defeat such a team is a feather in our cap and the game was won by no inability or off days with the Islanders for Howard put up a good game and was given excellent support.

Manager Berte's wisdom in choosing a team is becoming more evident every day.

The team was switched around and the change worked well. Crossley is more at home in left and put up a great game. One of his catches was little short of phenomenal. Randall showed better form at bat than heretofore. With Melone in right, the outfield should be fast and reliable. Corgrove came back to earth and put up a much improved game. Blauser played third in a way to make the fans feel good and Gray caught his usual good game. In short it was mighty comforting ball the locals put up and if they can keep up the lick, there need be no fear of our season's record. It's first division sure. Any team that can put up such an exhibition against Rock Island is of class.

Manager Louis Cook of the Rock Island team is a graduate of the University of Illinois in the electrical engineering department, and is well known in this city. Coach U. A. F. Holderby of the State School for Deaf, was a fellow student and athlete at the U. of I.

Cook started his baseball career with the U. of I. in 1903 and played that year and 1904 as short stop. On account of playing independent ball he and two fellow students, Pfeiffer and Warner, were barred from the university team the remainder of his school work. Pfeiffer is now pitcher for the Boston Nationals and Warner is pitcher for the Oshkosh team of the Wisconsin State league. In 1905 Cook was short-stop for the Oshkosh state team and lead the league in fielding average. In 1906 he played short-stop with Rock Island and in '07 was utility man and this year was unanimously chosen by the directors as manager of the Islanders.

It is safe to say that the U. of I. team of 1903 of which Cook was a member was the best college team that ever graced a diamond. They played twenty-eight games that season and lost only one. Six of the members of that team are now playing professional baseball and two could be if their parents would consent. U. of I. won the western college championship pennant for the years 1901, '02, '03, '04 and '05. In 1902 the team went east and defeated Pennsylvania, Yale, Princeton, West Point and Brown.

Jake Stahl was one of the fellows who was with Cook on the U. of I. team. He went from the university east and became outfielder with the New York Americans, for two seasons he was manager of the Washington Americans and is now playing left field with the New York Americans.

In the spring of 1906 Cook went to De Pauw and was coach for the ball team there and the last year in college he was student manager of the ball team at U. of I. and assistant coach. His home is in Quincy and no doubt when he takes his men there Friday they will be given a most hearty welcome.

Cook is a most affable gentleman to meet and a lover of good clean baseball. He is one of the ornaments of the game and it is predicted that he will make a great record with Rock Island this year, and move on to higher ranks, should he continue playing.

It appears that the Merry Widow hat is destined to play some part in ball circles. Thus far the grand stands have not been crowded and all have had a chance of seeing the game. Chicago Grain Market.
 (By Associated Press.)
 Chicago, April 22.—Wheat—Irregular, May being strong, the cash price, more distant deliveries quite weak at times. The market was decidedly strong the first hour because of urgent demand for May and security of offerings in that option. Small receipts from the northwest and firmness in European markets were factors on which the demand was chiefly based. Later sales of July and September became liberal. Reweaving of corn and favorable chron news from the southwest. This tended to offset congestion in May.

Corn—Weak allmost all day because of heavy selling of July and September by leading commission houses. Excellent weather for farm work and for movement of grain was a weak factor in influence. Shorts the principal buyers.

Oats—Firm early owing to bulge in wheat, but late weakness of corn had a depressing effect, although the close was steady.

	Re-	Ship-

Flour, bbls	46,000	20,000

MILITARY TEA.

One of the most pleasing social events of the season was the Military Tea given Wednesday afternoon at Colonial Inn by Mrs. J. Thompson Sharp. The function was given in honor of Mrs. Clarence Buell of Louisiana, Mo., and Mrs. Samuel Boates, wife of Captain Boates of St. Louis, Mo. The parlor and dining room of Colonial Inn, where the function was held were beautifully decorated in American flags and Easter lilies and in the hall concealed behind a large flag artistically draped was stationed the Goodrick-Drake orchestra, which furnished excellent music throughout the afternoon. The function was one of rare pleasure.

Mrs. Sharp was assisted by Mesdames George Masters, John R. Robertson, Harry B. Carriel, Horace H. Bancroft, James Brown, Alfred McCue, Edward W. Brown, T. B. O'Carroll and John Belatti.

A CARD.

DEATH RECORD

Hoban.

William Hoban, aged 22 years, passed away at Our Savior's hospital Wednesday evening at 9:30 o'clock. He was taken to the hospital about four weeks ago ill with typhoid fever and seemed to be improving right along until yesterday, when he had several hemorrhages and his left side became paralyzed, and he rapidly grew worse until death finally came.

William Hoban was the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Hoban, of 1207 Center street, and was born Dec. 11, 1886, in this city. He received his education in the parochial school of this city, and for the past three years had been an apprentice for F. W. Hubbs, tinner, and only two months ago finished learning his trade.

He was a member of the Church of Our Savior and also of the Knights of Columbus. His death, coming as it does so early in life, is indeed sad and the bereaved parents will have the sympathy of a large circle of friends.

He leaves to mourn his loss, besides his parents, two brothers, Albert and John and three sisters, Katherine, May and Loretta all at home.

Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

THE TRUTH ABOUT

HENRIETTA CROSMAN.
In Detroit the other day Henrietta Crosman got into an altercation with Evangelist Torry about the morals of the stage, and in the opinion of many the actress had the better of it. For herself she had only to point to her own plays and successes, and to "The Country Girl" in which she is now appearing. At the Grand to night.

CRYING FOR HELP.

Lots of it in Jacksonville, But Daily Growing Less.

The kidneys cry for help. Not an organ in the whole body so delicately constructed.

Not one so important to health. The kidneys are the filters of the blood.

When they fail the blood becomes foul and poisonous. There can be no health where there is poisoned blood.

Backache is one of the first indications of kidney trouble.

It is the kidney's cry for help. Doan's Kidney Pills are what is wanted.

Are just what overworked kidneys need.

They strengthen and invigorate the kidneys; help them to do their work; never fail to cure any case of kidney disease.

Read the proof from a Jacksonville citizen.

George W. Siegfried, living at 321 E. Monroe street, Jacksonville, Ill., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills have been used in my family with very satisfactory results. I do not hesitate to recommend them to the public as they are certainly all that is claimed for them."

GRACE CHURCH MEN TALK NEW EDIFICE

Members Show Much Enthusiasm at Their Annual Easter Reunion Over Proposed Building—Excellent Program Given.

The annual Easter reunion of the membership of Grace M. E. church was held in the church parlors Wednesday evening. This meeting was well attended by the members and their families and a happy time was generally enjoyed. A pleasing program was given consisting of the annual reports of the various organizations interspersed with recitations and some delightful musical numbers.

The different reports which were given by the leaders of the several organizations were not confined to statistics, but were, on the other hand, inspirational talks along the line of work pursued throughout the year. In every department it was the expressed opinion that great progress had been made and in some instances, some very remarkable figures were introduced as in the case of the Home and Foreign Missionary society $450 had been raised the past year and in the Ladies' Aid society $650. These are certainly very gratifying figures as were those given in all the other reports.

In each talk, last evening, it was the consensus of opinion that a new church ought to be built and it was at once evident that this enterprise had begun to possess the hearts of all the members. Rev. Mr. Nate made a short talk at the end of the program, summing up, very briefly, the work of the organization for the past year. He dwelt mainly on the new church project and expressed himself as heartily in sympathy with the movement. He said that he believed the new church talk would not come to naught, but would, in the near future, culminate in the undertaking to build the church. As a basis for his belief Rev. Mr. Nate held up a $50 check, which he recently received from a member of the church, and stated that this had been given to him for the new church fund and thus the fund for a new Grace church had in reality been started.

At the close of the program elegant refreshments were served and all thoroughly enjoyed the rest of the evening in a social manner. The following was the program:

Violin Solo—Miss Irene Thompson. The Sunday School—J. W. Breckon.

The Epworth League—J. T. Dorris. The Junior League—Miss Hattie Patterson.

The Brotherhood—J. J. Reeve. Vocal solo—Miss Louise Smith.

Recitation—Miss Katherine Yates. Woman's Missionary society—Mrs. R. A. Gates.

Young Woman's society—Miss Ida Marsh. Queen Esther Circle—Miss Olivia Dunlap.

King's Heralds—Miss Louise Gates.

Pastor's Aid—Mrs. H. E. Rusk. Vocal solo, Holy City—Miss Smith.
